THE ALMA MATER

*Oh, come, let's sing our Wooster's praise
And songs to Alma Mater raise;
And for the school we hold most high,
We'll raise our voices to the sky.
To her we pledge our hearts and hands,
And loyal to her each one stands;
Preserve her honor far and near
Because we love her, Wooster dear.*

The General Annual of 1951

"JUST WHAT IS WOOSTER HIGH, ANYWAY?"

"Well, it's the assembled voices joined in pledging allegiance . . . the miles of print read, the thousands of words heard . . . the rising roar, the surge of spirit greeting the team . . . the bustle of organized activities
. . . the small talk, friends waiting in the corridors . . .

But wait . . . let me picture it for you."

BOARD OF EDUCATION

Few students realize the hard work and hours of planning done by the school board which make possible Wooster's superior school system. This year the Board can take pride in the comparison of the state inspector's reports with those of three years ago. Wooster is rated Satisfactory plus in nearly all phases of school work. Especial improvements have been made in the home economics department, which has a broader program and better equipment; the science department, equipped with the new general science room and additional lab apparatus; in other courses, buildings and grounds with the new playgrounds and newly painted classrooms and corridors. Notably mentioned among features of the high school are the art, industrial arts, vocational agriculture, use of audiovisual aids, and the guidance program.

Through the co-operation of the City Council, the Board has been able to expand the site of the high school surroundings. The generosity of the Freedlander Trust fund has made possible the additional playground, tennis and improvements on all the school grounds. The corrective teaching program initiated in elementary schools is progressing satisfactorily. The Board is also working on a new schedule for teachers' salaries.

Always interested in the activities of the school, the Board has been featuring reports from various department heads at its monthly meetings. Three members attended the American Association of School Administrators in Atlantic City this year, where they absorbed new ideas and viewed the latest in equipment.

Mr. Joseph A. Dorff

To define "principal" using Mr. Dorff as our example, we should say "a man who efficiently takes care of the details and headaches of the school administration, yet enthusiastically takes part in the programs and activities of the school and takes interest in counseling the students." By filling this capacity, Mr. Dorff has become a friend that the Class of 1931 will long remember.

Mr. D. P. Bodenbender

Supervising not only the high school but all of the Wooster school system, Mr. Bodenbender still finds time to be a loyal supporter of Wooster High's activities. As an adviser, he is respected and admired for his personal interest in every student.

CLASS PROPHECY

As our second childhood draws near, the spring air lures us to seek Adventure and Memories, calls us to the Believe It or Not (we'd rather not) Circus featuring the track sensations, the Fifty Winners.

The side shows with their bright posters and lively music attract our attention to where that devastating duo Nat Bodenbender and Pat Specht are warbling the "Refrain" from Snowing. The live cat is heard as George Volcano Crater Sings. At the prep show are Terry Twing's ruddy chicks, Betsy's buzzing, among the posters can be seen Mother Grubb managing her baseball wonders, Molly's Moth Ballers, Ann Albright's All Star Athletics, a flea circus with a new home, the playing a champion basketball team on which Blake Dimer is taking bets. In the next booth's Margie Wright showing off her proteges, two margots high on dead Finest.

Spotting the broadcasting studio of station TENT, which is covering the circus, we enter

Keslar's amateur hour, which brings budding geniuses to flower, features an all-star cast: Martin Fritz and Tom Clark, the kids from the Sticks, with a drum duet that can't be beat; Bob Igoc and his Golden Trumpet, the sweetest music this side; Jim Taggart, Master of Woodcraft, he uses his head; a chorus of pupils with disciplined drummers from Nadelin's Conservatory; and Fred Stringfield with a dramatic monologue. Fred Stringfield has recently been a crashing success in the play "My Trip on the Stage."

Picking up a copy of True Confessions, we discover a story entitled "My Friend Tippy" by Ralph Ely, Golfing Gopher of the Golden West. With refreshments from Jean's home-berger stand we continue to Dick's Boston Tea Party.

While we sip our tea, Dick chats with us about the events of interest. Among other things, he informs us that Ann Heise has attended every performance with a different beau, that Coaches Tucker Ogden and Cliff Elliott have suspended some of the football boys for attending the night shows, and that Jack Lawrence has won the Olympic skating championship.

Continuing, we stroll down the midway where we glimpse Guy Hummon, Ted Taylor, and Baddy Hoover scribbling moustaches on posters of Joy Long, model for Hummon's Tooth paste, or a Growing Soak. Maria South is selling Facial Cream, for Fraudulent Freckles to

1. Pharmaceutical industry—The pharmaceutical industry is the largest and most profitable of the major industries in the United States. It is a highly competitive industry with a high degree of technological sophistication. The industry is characterized by a high degree of concentration, with a few large firms dominating the market. The industry is also characterized by a high degree of innovation, with new drugs being developed at a rapid pace.

CLASS WILL

We of the Class of 1951 hereby bequeath our worldly possessions:
Ed Eberhart leaves his homework papers for Miss Rodgers to find.
Marilyn McKee and Sally Kaser leave their twosome to Joyce Zenrock and Donna Martin.
Ann Hunsman leaves the Smithville boys to Sally Shamel.
Jack Perkins leaves his cast to the Soc and Buskin Club.
Pete Hershberger, Bob Regenhardt, and Dick Gwin leave their builds to the athletic department.
Dick Flickinger leaves his editorial to John M.
Junior Friedman leaves with a big splash.
Red Stepanek leaves Patt Ryan's "Puddy Tat" to Scott Craig.
Ed Bullens leaves his original explanations to Hal Warren.
Velma Bauer, Carol Crites, Pat Konkle, Margie Miller, and Janet Slater leave their rings to the telephone company.
Sally Comin leaves the piano to Ann Mayer.
Pat Specht, Jonalyn Gault, Eunice Gamertsfelder, June McCuen, Ed Stringfield, and Linda Brubaker leave to join their college men.
Carol Grosjean leaves her lawn man to the school yard.
Jean Honeberger leaves her blush to Jerry Rice.
Janice Gartshore leaves her gentle disposition to Lois Dickason.
Jim Landes leaves his line with the fish.
Nancy Crow and Ginny Kaufman leave their school spirit to the remaining cheerleaders.
Betsy Sands and Doris Stout leave their dimples to Ella Belle Fullerton.
Jim Jolliff leaves the assembly announcements to Mr. Dorff.
Bob Johnson leaves, mumbling.
Sally McComas leaves her short men to any girl with lots of flat shoes.
Fritz Emerson leaves his bucket and foot bath to Ray Lear.
Annette Clark and Marceal Taylor leave Irene Bryner to carry on in the sax section.
Marlene Mushock leaves her modern dance to Bonnie Derr.
Shirley Ackerman leaves her typing mistakes to D. C. Morris.
Walt Bushnell left and came back.
Dwight Rhamy leaves the trio a duet.
Carol Bradford leaves the gossip column vacant.
Allen Smith leaves the school smarter than he found it.
Barb Berry leaves her dishes for the cafeteria dishwashers—at last.
Eileen Wyss and Carolyn Stair leave their quietness to Nancy Orahood and Jan Pritchard.
Katie Cohan leaves "B" Schreiber to walk alone.

Jim McClarran. In the home gadgets booth, Bonnie Barnes and Eleanor Dunham are demonstrating how to use a Squeeze-Me squeezer for Some-Kist oranges. Originators of the successor to the Ficus Wheel, the Wheels are getting around. Jack Perkins, and Jim Jolliff are now using their pull on Taffy, (beating Wish Jones's time).

It's almost time for the big show, so we hurry on toward the main tent. The fight schedule on the billboards announces that Roger Massaro is slated to meet the winner of the Bob Regenhardt-Bill Martin tangle tonight. Just outside the tent, Fritz Emerson is scrubbing the elephants, painted pink last night by Bird Premier and John Brown. Fritz reports that the week's peanut supply was lost when one of Terrible Tunic's Transfer Trucks crashed because its clutch slipped on a curve.

We enter the big top just in time to see Jim Price leading in the parade of clowns. Next appears King Cohen, Queen of the Backback Riders, gracefully galloping through a netting of purple and blue. Bang, Bang! At the next round head faces the dust. It's Art Young—a victim of Venus Variant's lightning bolts. The thundering herds of Wheels Whom Show charge upon the scene. Amid the resulting confusion and crowds great luck to our many classmates we've met today.

'Didn't we really have a circus back at old W H S?' we muse

As the Star Spangled Banner closes the day's routine, we go out with the lights.

STUDENT COUNCIL

The Student Council is the representative body of the high school. Each home room from the seventh grade through the junior class elects one member and an alternate to the Council; the larger senior home rooms elect three regular members each. The purpose of the organization is to discuss and act upon school problems presented to it by the students and the faculty.

As has been the custom, the Student Council again promoted the sale of Student Activity Tickets early in the school year. Other duties which they performed were the election of the Booster Club members and the management of Annual year book sales. The council decided to move the date of the election of class officers to the first month of the school year. The elections were previously held in November, to correspond with the national elections. To help finance the organization, a pencil-dispensing machine was placed in the office. Pencils are blue with gold printing, and sell for five cents.

This year the Student Councils of the county, including Wooster, competed in a "Get Out to Vote" campaign. This drive for more voters was sponsored by the Junior Chamber of Commerce. The council whose district showed the greatest increase in percentage was to receive a $100 prize.

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

Eighteen years ago the Lura B. Kean Chapter of the National Honor Society was organized at Wooster High School. The Wooster Chapter is an honorary organization with members chosen according to their rank in scholarship, service, and character.

To be eligible for membership, one must be in the upper third of his class, scholastically. He must take responsibilities in extra-curricular activities to qualify in the leadership category. Service and character are judged on a point system from votes of students and faculty. A total of fifteen per cent of each class is taken into the club, five per cent during their junior year, and the remaining ten per cent during their senior year. This year the election was during the second semester, with the ten per cent of the senior class being elected at the same time, rather than five per cent each semester.

Each spring there is an impressive candlelight induction ceremony for new members, which challenges them to strive toward the high ideals of the club. Though the Wooster chapter of National Honor Society does not have special social activities its members are expected to work quietly for the betterment of scholarship, leadership, service, and character in the school.

WHSV

Becoming a charter member of a national society is a special honor—one which Wooster High School's radio club received officially this year. All across the nation, radio workshops have organized and have joined the National Scholastic Radio Guild. The individual clubs represent monthly news bulletins and fifteen-minute radio scripts by the Guild. This fall the Wooster High Student Voice received a charter which was hung on the wall of the broadcasting room.

The 1950-51 year was a busy one for the club members, who had to be interested sincerely in radio work to pass their auditors. Daily announcements and devotionals programs began the WHSV school day while on Monday, Wednesday and Friday the members were taken up with the "High School Hour" broadcast over WWST. The Monday program was entitled "Adult Education", and covered a variety of subjects. During the first half of the year, the Wednesday program was "Highlights from Wooster High" which illustrated many activities of the school. Second semester a music appreciation program which had been previously scheduled for Friday, took its place; and the Friday time was given over to the popular "Speak Up, Scholar."

Two WHSV assemblies played a major part in the club's activities. Musical and comedy numbers by the members were included in both. An adaptation of Shakespeare's "The Merchant of Venice" was featured in the first assembly. In the spring the club showed its dramatic ability in the WHSV version of "Sorry, Wrong Number."

On April 28, WHSV members participated in a tournament held at the WBOE station in Cleveland. This was welcomed as an opportunity for improvement by all those attending it. Much progress was also made by those radio club members who were able to attend Mr. Kunkle's radio speech classes. All in all, the forty members of WHSV feel that they are really Wooster High's Student Voice.

THE GENERAL

The staff of the General—The Only Paper in the World that Cares Two Whoops for Wooster High—completed another successful year, with fourteen deadlines met, and fourteen issues published.

A float for the homecoming queen and her court was an innovation; and the procedure of having twelve queens take their various turns competing in the Wooster Night Races was also a project initiated by the General.

A baker's dozen journalists made the Thanksgiving trek to Chicago for the National Scholastic Press Conference at the Hotel Stevens. They covered besides the series of meetings everything from museums to Mae West. After three days of meetings they came home to be greeted by the Big Snow. The Christmas issue followed coming out in red and green and Valentine's Day introduced the Ideal Date. Spring came and brought with it a first place rating in the Columbia contests. Another leg of the journey attended the annual Northern Ohio Scholastic Conference at Kent, taking part in the interview, news event, and clinics.

With all these honors and achievements tucked in their hat bands, the staff came to the end of the road.

SOC AND BUSKIN

The 1950-51 season was another successful one for the Soc and Buskin Club. The semi-monthly meetings planned by program chairman Jack Perkins were both informative and fun. Some of the best programs were those which included speakers from the Wooster Community Theatre and from the college, readings given by club members, many of whom had won honors at speech tournaments for their work, and pantomimes worked out by small groups to be presented at the meetings. Besides several one act plays which were in demand for various club meetings, the Soc and Buskin Club staged two three act plays, "The Bishop's Manoe" and "The Late Christopher Bean".

THESPIAN SOCIETY

The National Thespian Society is a non-social, non-secret dramatic organization which is composed of those Soc and Buskin members who have earned ten points. It is the goal of every Soc and Buskin member to become a Thespian, while Thespians who are really interested in dramatics have a chance to strive for the extra thirty points which qualify them for Honor Thespian rank. Points are earned by the crew and cast alike members who work on the scenes, as well as by the actors who appear on the stage in the finished production.

The spring banquet and formal dance was the only Thespian Society meeting this year. The chaperones, Miss Ruth King and Miss Fern Patterson, presented the Honor Thespians with their pins and bestowed special awards upon actors and crewmen who had done outstanding work in dramatics.

TRI-HI-Y

The Tri-Hi-Y held its meetings on the first and third Tuesdays of each month. The Tri-Hi-Y cabinet and advisers decided early in the year that the club should plan to live up to its name of a service organization, and forego some of its social meetings in order to serve the school and community better. In a very active year, the Tri-Hi-Y members enjoyed meetings of both pleasure and service.

The annual Big Little Sister Picnic in September gave prospective members a chance to understand the purposes of the club before joining it. Then during the year, the Tri-Hi-Y sponsored such all-school activities as a Christmas Formal and a Talent Night, as well as

SENIOR HI-Y

As seniors, this group of boys climaxed two profitable years in Y organizations with their 1950-51 activities. In their sophomore year, the club's officers arranged for talks on wildlife, arms, and safety, as well as several recreational meetings, one of which took the form of a trip to Cleveland to see a hockey game. Their money-making project that year was the selling of football pep ribbons, while in their junior year they helped at the refreshment stands at football and basketball games.

This project, along with several other activities, was carried over into their senior year. It was this year that they played host to the Millersburg Hi-Y club in a basketball and volleyball session. They also held their assembly with the senior Hi-Y at the Mason Bonquet, and a dance in April. Several Senior Hi-Yers represented the club at the annual YMCA banquet.

During the Thanksgiving season, the boys had an opportunity to help the needy in the community by delivering baskets of food which were made up by the Tri-Hi-Y and others interested in the project. Afterwards the boys felt that if they had done nothing else in their three years of Y membership, witnessing the gratitude of these people would have made the club worthwhile.

JUNIOR HI-Y

This year the Junior Hi-Y tried to live up to its purpose of creating, maintaining, and extending throughout the school and community high standards of Christian character. The boys decided they could best do this by strengthening their organization and adding to the services rendered by the club. They were aided in their steps toward this goal by Mr. Victor McIntire, the club's adviser, and Mr. Harlan Dietz, General Secretary of the Wooster YMCA.

One of the most important activities of the year was the selling of refreshments at General basketball games. Not only was this service popular with the students, but it was also a means of financing some of the club's other activities. An evening of swimming and basketball provided recreation for the members who also enjoyed themselves on a hayride sponsored by the club. Some of the Junior Hi-Y fellows attended the Hi-Y convention at Warren, and later, a district meeting held at Mansfield. A Mother-Son Banquet was planned by the officers for spring, but the real climax of the year was the Snorgasbord supper, promoted and planned jointly by the Y clubs.

FUTURE TEACHERS OF AMERICA

The Clifton Layton Chapter of Future Teachers of America is made up of sophomores, juniors, and seniors who are interested in a future career in teaching. The Wooster Club is part of a large state and national FTA movement. In recognition of this fact, delegates were sent to the FTA meeting held in Cleveland during the NEOFA convention and to the state wide FTA conference in Columbus in April.

Evening meetings were held once a month so that members might learn more about the opportunities and requirements of teaching. The speakers usually teachers answered questions about college, curriculums, and the different age levels in teaching. At one meeting, the Wooster FTA club entertained the Apple Creek Chapter. The Dean of the College of Education of Ohio University and others from Ohio University were guests at another meeting.

Service, an important FTA objective, was the theme of several projects. Among these were selling General book covers to students, distributing the school's new songbooks at assemblies, and serving as monitors for the junior high study halls.

A feature which distinguishes the FTA from all other clubs in the high school is its annual May Week. In cooperation with the elementary teachers, Superintendent Rosenbender, and Principal Dorf, junior and senior FTA members were loaned and for privilege of observing and teaching elementary classes for several hours. Originated last year, this novel and popular idea gives future teachers an opportunity to discover their talents and interests in the field of education.

FUTURE FARMERS OF AMERICA

The purpose of Future Farmers of America is to develop agricultural leadership, cooperation, and citizenship in the farm boys of America. The club's motto is

Learning to do, Doing to learn,
 Earning to live, Living to serve.
 —William Groseclose

The total membership of the Wooster chapter of FFA is twenty-eight, with seventeen chapter farmers and eleven "greenhands," or new members. The FFA members work on projects of which there are twenty registered. Twenty-nine of the projects are for improving and beautifying the home farm.

The FFA club participates in many local, district, and state activities and contests. Jones Alexander, past president of the Wooster chapter, was honored with the title of State Farmer last year. Roger Varns, this year's president, is the district reporter. Roger, Terry Ewing, Jim Yarnell, Allen Smith, and Bill Weary attended the National Convention at Kansas City, Missouri. Another member of the Wooster club, Donald Garm, was awarded the Wooster Equity Holstein Heifer in competition with four other chapters.

At the Ohio State Fair the Wooster chapter of FFA prepared an exhibit which won first prize. New members competed individually in the Wayne County Fair. In the FFA contests, the Wooster club is looking forward to being on the winning side with their basketball team. The club's members will compete in dairy farm shop, farm over-caring, agriculture, and live stock judging, in the state level and participate in poetry, prose, and public speaking contests at the district.

FUTURE HOMEMAKERS OF AMERICA

The Wooster Chapter of Future Homemakers of America is a member of the state and national FFA organization. The purposes of the club are to promote an appreciation of the joys and satisfactions of homemaking, to emphasize the importance of democracy and creative leadership in home economics, to promote recreation, good will to a wide variety of some individual and group recreation, and to further interest in home economics.

This year, meetings were held on the second Tuesday of each month. The requirement for membership was one year of home economics. A total of seventy-five girls interested in learning more about home economics and the homemaker's part in our community joined the club.

Some of the interesting programs planned for the year were the following: a talk and movie on Mexico by Miss Wylie, who traveled in Mexico this last summer; a demonstration by a Wooster homemaker of a home Christmas party and square dance with the FFA boys. In November the club's officers went to Lodi to help in the formal installation of the officers of the newly organized Lodi Chapter. A service project of the Wooster FFA was the sending of forty boxes of new clothing to European children. On March 12 the Club Mothers, the advisers, and interested FFA girls went to the BiCounty Rally in Dayton at 2:00, staying for a pot luck supper in the evening. The club ended its activities for the year with a formal installation.

SCRATCH 'N SCRIBBLE

The Junior Shorthand Club was organized with Miss Gwenneth Foss acting as adviser.

The purpose of the club is to increase interest in the secretarial field, to gain information regarding types of positions available, and to develop personality traits necessary for successful secretaries.

Three monthly meetings were held at the homes of the members and at school. They consisted of a group program followed by a social hour.

The main topics discussed were good grooming and how it affects your efficiency, budgeting your wardrobe, what to wear on a job interview, why people want to be secretaries, how secretaries spend their money and vacations. We also had a guest speaker talk to us about experiences on the job.

For the club's service project, we typed material for the American Red Cross, English Department, Vocational Agricultural Department, the Athletic Department, and the high school office.

DITTEM
AND

"Small but mighty", "quality but not quantity" was the condition in which the Ditem and Dottem girls found themselves during the year 1950-51. Nevertheless, the girls tried to achieve the purpose of the club: to acquire a thorough knowledge of how to perform successfully secretarial duties and how to develop an employable personality.

Our largest social functions were a roller-skating party and a Mother-Daughter Tea. The club held one model meeting. At this model meeting, each girl was dressed as she would be for an interview and conducted herself accordingly. At each monthly meeting the group was entertained by various members with a display of musical talent. An unusual project was enjoyed by all when the girls "heard themselves as others hear them" by making use of the tape recorder to record interviews and telephone conversations.

Special secretarial projects of the club were as follows: typing campaign literature for Miss Carroll's candidacy for president of the Department of Classroom Teachers of the State of Ohio; Sae was elected to duplicate a number of programs to be used at the District NFL Student Congress held in Wooster; assisting with general clerical work for the local Red Cross Drive; surveying downtown business offices to determine the nature of the various business forms used in local business offices.

BAND

The 1950-51 edition of the Wooster High School Band was somewhat smaller in personnel than it had been other years, but the determination of the players more than offset this disadvantage. Many new members joined the band, adding their earnest efforts to the organization. Mr. Richard Shilling, the new director who came to Wooster from Saint Mary's, Ohio, did his part to help the band present a revue of fine shows for the fall football games.

Featured at the spring band concert were Tom Clark and Martin Fritz, who played a novelty drum number, and Anne Mayer, pianist, who played Hubert Bath's Cornish Rhapsody with the band. The remainder of the program included several marches and concert band numbers, highlighting the seniors in the organization.

SENIOR CHOIR

Under the able leadership of Mr. Richard Schelling, the Wooster High School Choir enjoyed a very successful year. Their first public appearance was during the halftime show of a high school football game, when they assisted the band in performing Do-Beats with the two organizations forming a skeleton. In December the choir had a major part in the winter Christmas Sing. For the national Concert to Now, The Boy Who Cried Wolf, Hallelujah Chorus, and Rock of Ages were sung. For the Music Mothers' Christmas Picnic the choir sang a group of numbers, presenting them in the manner of a regular rehearsal. Then in March some of the choir members were privileged to go to Ashland to hear the Robert Shaw Chorus. While Mr. Shaw was at the College of Wooster conducting the Bach B Minor Mass he visited and praised the high school choir. Mr. Shaw the director is considered the most outstanding living American conductor of choral music. The choir also competed in the district choir contest at Kent.

A girls ensemble, a mixed ensemble, and a boys octet were formed from the choir this year. These groups sing for various civic and civic organizations, besides singing in the choir concert and the ensemble contest.

The spring choir concert was held in May. Sing and Rejoice by Will James, Go Not Far From Me O Lord by Haven Morgan, and The Lord Bless and Keep You by Edmund Suter were three of the religious numbers which were sung. In a lighter vein the choir sang I Found a New Song. This includes a collection of Sigvard Romberg's most beloved songs and was presented with orchestral accompaniment.

NATIONAL FORENSIC LEAGUE

The year 1951 is a year that will long be remembered by the Speech department. Several outstanding things happened this year making it a never-to-be-forgotten one. For the first time Wooster had two students place first in the NEF district contest. Margie Wright and Jack Perkins thus qualified for the National tournament as well as the State tournament in Extempore and Original Orator respectively. Margie then went on to win first in the State tournament in this was actually qualifying twice. The National tournament is to be held in Los Angeles on June 25 '51. Wooster has not had a student place first in the NEF district since 1918.

Prince of Peace orations were the first event on the 1950-51 speech calendar. City contests were held in five of the local churches with Janet Zollinger, Katie Cohan, Anne Anderson, Patt Ryan, and Jack Perkins going on to the county contests. Anne and Patt came out victorious, and went on to the District contests. At these contests, which were held the early part of January, Anne ranked second while Patt got third.

Wooster's debaters started out well with the freshmen winning their first tournament at Snow December 9. On January 27, the debate squad won the tourney at Jackson Memorial High School. All in all they won sixty debates and lost forty-eight, a good record though not in an pressive one. The encouraging note is that the future looks brighter, since only one senior is leaving the team.

It was a big year in Individual Events. Wooster won the Wadsworth tournament and came in second in the Big Massillon tourney.

On February 20 at the OHSSS District Speech Tournament, three Wooster students qualified.

qualified for State. Carl Bradford in Oratory, Donna Shellenberger in Dramatic, and Jack Perkins in Original Oratory.

At the NFL District tourney, Jim Jolliff, Janet Zollinger, and Margie Wright qualified for state. The State tournament was held in Columbus March 16-17. Jim Jolliff placed fourth; Donna Shellenberger, sixth; Jack Perkins, third; and Margie Wright, first.

The second big event in this speech year was the meeting of Student Congress in Wooster High School. Two hundred students from all over eastern Ohio made Wooster their home over the Easter weekend. Jim Jolliff received a gavel for being the best speaker from the floor and best Speaker of one of the Houses.

The big Freshman Tournament for frush from all over Ohio was held as usual at Wooster High on May 12.

On the social side of the organization there was a Christmas formal and also a big Student Congress Dance at Smithville. A Bake Sale was also held.

There were about sixty members in NFL this year and most of them were kept busy working in speech the better part of the year.

SPANISH CLUB

On the third Thursday of each month, a group of junior and senior Spanish students hopped a flying carpet for a flight through the fascinating Latin American countries. The Spanish Club meetings, although partly social gatherings, provided the seniors and seniors with an excellent opportunity to become acquainted with our Spanish-speaking neighbors to the south. Besides being shown captivating colored slides of Mexico by Miss Keeler and Miss Weaver and hearing their firsthand account of Mexican life, the club witnessed interesting and informative films from the public library at several of their meetings. The espanoles entertained the French and German clubs at a truly enjoyable Christmas party during which a pinata, showering gifts, was shattered in true Latin-American style. Jim Price and his committees planned several other parties and picnics during the year, and all were enjoyed immensely.

This summer a group of very fortunate juniors and seniors who hope to make use of their Spanish plan to travel through Mexico with Senorita Rodgers. These students are looking forward to seeing the many sights they have read about.

FRENCH CLUB

Bonjour, mes amies. This year a few more members were added to the new French group—the junior French students. In their first meeting, the joint junior and senior French Club helped plan a Christmas party with the Spanish Club. A French cake was the theme of the party, which was held in the Club Room. The February meeting was held around some sketches made by Janis Glasgow of the types of clothing worn in the provinces of France. These were supplemented by some interesting facts about the French provinces.

In March the juniors and seniors went to see the French version of "The Mad Woman of Chatterbox" which was presented at the College of Wooster. The club was also very fortunate in having at one meeting a very interesting and educational movie from the public library which depicted the ways and customs of the French people.

The club saved tax stamps during the year with the intention of buying some records to use with the phonograph that was bought by the language clubs at the end of last year.

As the freshman Latin students of last year became sophomores taking second-year Latin this year, their club became the Sophomore Latin Club. Its purpose of increasing the members' understanding of the Latin language and their knowledge of Roman history remained the same. The club's officers and adviser, Mrs. Joss, planned monthly meetings at which all the members participated in singing songs in Latin, playing Latin games, and giving reports on Roman holidays and customs.

Several skits were included in the activities which were fun for all and gave members a chance to learn by doing. At the November meeting, a complete Roman wedding was enacted from betrothal to crossing the threshold. The wedding party, led by the bride and groom, Ruth Neely and Roy Wells, dressed in costumes patterned after the old Roman togas. "The Argonauts," a skit portraying Jason's search for the Golden Fleece, was written by Robert Berry and given by club members at another of their meetings. A Christmas party, a bake sale, an authentic Roman dinner, and various other activities made the Sophomore Latin Club's year a full one.

FRESHMAN LATIN CLUB

The Freshman Latin Club was set up to supplement the classroom work of the students taking first year Latin.

The Freshman Latin students greatly enjoyed their two social events of the year. The first was a Christmas party, at which fortunes were told in Latin, among other activities. The second club meeting was in the form of an elaborate banquet held at the Lutheran Church. Several members dressed in typical Roman costumes. The spaghetti supper was followed by speeches by a doctor, a lawyer, a preacher, and a teacher on the connection between Latin and their own particular career.

All in all, the Freshman Latin Club members agreed that they had a very successful and profitable year.

JUNTO

Junto is a club designed to assist the presidents of school organizations in conducting their meetings more smoothly and efficiently. The official Junto book, Robert's Rules of Order, is followed in learning correct parliamentary procedure. Originally, the members had the custom of passing laws which served merely as laugh getters, though allowing them to practice the proper procedure for business meetings. This year, it was decided to enact only bills which would be of real value to members when they went back to their various clubs, or when they attended Student Congress.

The members are chosen in the following three classifications:

Class A: Presidents of the four major high school groups: Student Council, and sophomore, junior, and senior classes.

Class B: Presidents of all other organizations

Class C: Unqualified members who wish to join the club

Though Classes A and B are automatically members, the unqualified candidates of Class C must be voted into the club by the immediate members of Junto

FILMBREAKERS

An important service in our high school is performed by the members of Filmbreakers club—that of operating the school's movie projecting equipment. The boys run projectors on both sound and silent films for teachers interested in the school's expanding visual education program, as well as showing filmstrips for other instructional purposes.

Though they do most of their "filmbreaking" during their study periods when they can show movies to classes, the members of Filmbreakers club also spend some time out of school on club activities. They are responsible for taking films to and from the Public Library or to the Post Office to be mailed. Often the PTA, Hi Y, and other clubs want to show pictures at their meetings, and members of Filmbreakers are always in demand to operate the projectors. They have also shown films for community groups such as the Wayne County Board of Health, for which they showed movies at the fair last year.

Filmbreakers club is open to all freshmen, sophomores, juniors, and seniors. New members gain their knowledge of how the projectors operate from the older members. Some of the club's problems are discussed at meetings held during the extended home room period on Wednesday. There are no elected officers, but the club runs smoothly under the capable supervision of Mr. Floyd Maurer.

A group of twelve sophomore girls who have sung together for two years makes up the Sophomore Girls' Ensemble. These girls have appeared at assemblies, at the High School Home and for many church and civic groups. They participated in a choir festival, and received a superior rating in the district junior high contest last spring.

The girls wore white-colored dresses and black concert skirts for their performances this year. They were directed by Miss Mable Helm and accompanied by Loretta Conrad. The ensemble consists of Jackie Carpenter, Shirley Gray, Phyllis Miracle, and Betty Lou Smith, sopranos; Pat Henry, Ann Moberg, Pat Moberg, and Dolores Kay, altos; second sopranos, Janet Metzger, Nancy Rhamy, Carolyn Schmidt, and Janet Taylor, altos.

JUNIOR RED CROSS COUNCIL

The Junior Red Cross Council completed its third year of active participation in Wooster High School affairs as one of the school's service organizations. After electing officers at its first meeting of the year, the council's work consisted mainly of conducting a membership drive throughout the school. The representatives from each home room collaborated with adviser Miss Ruth B. L. L. to reach 100 membership. This goal was achieved through direct contact with each home room. The money collected was turned in to the Senior Red Cross. Though the high school's council was not assigned much work this year, the jobs it took on were done well.

THE COLONEL

Though the Junior High paper, the Colonel, was not published regularly during 1950-51, the staff did its best to improve the contents of the issues which were put out.

Humor and gossip were combined in a special feature this year, Chuckle-bait. As the editor says, "Names of our classmates are in this column, but there is no malice, we hope. Gossip is supposed to be verified before it goes into the paper." Another feature was the Boy and Girl of the week write-up. Sports, including football, basketball, track, and the girls' Junior GAA were also reported, along with any other Junior High news.

This year the Colonel staff decided to try to ease the headaches of future editors and their staffs by making a notebook of all Colonel issues. Their hope is that this will take some of the trial-and-error method out of printing the paper by giving future staffs something to build on.

BYGONE DAZE

As the waiting line of eager graduates clusters into small groups, we hear snatches of conversation. Looking ahead is replaced by memories

"Haven't our four years here been unique?"

"They sure have! We've really been a first class in everything. We had the first freshman Hi-Y club. In our sophomore year, we saw the organization of WHSV and the Junior Red Cross. As juniors, we formed a French club and helped elect the school's first track queen."

"Weren't we the first sophomore class to sponsor a dance? Then our junior Shamrock Hop with its misty wishing pool surrounded by green shamrocks had a real Irish atmosphere."

"Those dances were to raise money for the Prom, weren't they?"

"Ah, yes—Dreamers' Holiday. After we dreamed up the idea, we spent most of our holiday working on it. With the ceiling falling down and all the last minute troubles, I thought we'd never get finished! It's a relief to be seniors now."

"But we seniors have given our share of dances, too. Our class party was a square dance in socks. And don't forget the sensational Congo Capers with the paper mache giraffe and a balloon tree, sponsored by our Hi-Y."

"Remember the Roman banquet that the Latin Club had? Reclining in our sheet togas held up close the most part, with safety pins, we would have been disowned by any self-respecting citizen of Rome."

"Our cross country had the athletes even from the eighth grade days. Last year we helped attain the undefeated football season, and then went on to have a successful one of our own."

"And look at our basketball record. That's the best for many a year."

"We've boosted the records of swimming, track, and baseball teams, too."

"With six state and two national contestants, the speech department really made an impressive showing this year."

"Those radio club assemblies featuring high school talent were tops! The Kopy Katz and the thriller 'Sorry, Wrong Number' proved that WHS has talent equal to professionals."

"I think of all of us who have been cast in Soc and Buskin plays! The grueling rehearsals in the library paid off with outstanding performance under the lights. Even though for some, dramatics was confined to crew work and clean up, we had gay times back stage."

"Remember how hard we slaved last year on tag day to raise funds for new band uniforms? Wally's last concert, where he was presented with a gold watch, was a great occasion. I'll never forget his face when we girls lined up and kissed him good-bye."

"The excellent performances of the orchestra and choir at their concerts this year showed their right to the high ratings earned at State. Under Mr. Shilling, the band had some novel half time shows: the merry-go round, locomotive, and skull for Hallowe'en."

"We've really had a lot of fun. I wouldn't have missed it for anything. But I stop, there's the first strains of 'Pomp and Circumstance'! Here we go."

BOOSTER CLUB

The Booster Club has one primary duty to perform, that of arousing school spirit for sports events through pep rallies and bonfires. This year's club has been particularly interested in expanding its work into sports other than football. The club's main social event was the Homecoming Dance after the Orville football game.

Members of the club are chosen by the Student Council for a one-year term.

VARSIITY CHEERLEADERS

An all-important factor in the success of the athletic teams is that of a good school spirit within the student body. Often it is this spirit which provides a team with the incentive to play far beyond its normal ability, thus enabling a team to achieve that all-important win. Faithfully performing their duty of uniting this spirit into strong support for the major athletic teams this year were the six attractive General cheerleaders: Nancy Crow, Ginny Kaufman, Marlon Ackerman, Connie Arnold, Donna Vickers, and Sally Wells.

Pete Hershberger

Dwight Rhamy

Jim Landes

"PETE" HERSHBERGER, better known as "The Toe", was the most versatile member of the squad. Besides kicking off, punting, and kicking extra points, Pete played defensive fullback, saw action as a defensive linebacker, and led his team offensively from his left half position. Pete won his second varsity football letter along with the best offensive back trophy.

A fast-running, hard-hitting fullback was Co-Capt. DWIGHT RHAMY. His speed and "lower the boom" style of running both set up and achieved many of the Generals' touchdowns. Dwight received his second varsity football letter this year.

Turning in a fine season of play was JAMES LANDES. Jim played offensive and defensive right half. His excellent blocking proved to be an important factor in the success attained by this year's squad. Jim won his first varsity letter this year.

Doing a superb job of plugging the middle of the Generals' defensive line was JACK CONN. This was the first year of football for Jack. He developed fast and soon won a regular berth. Jack won his first letter this year.

An excellent blocker and tackler was Co-Capt. GEORGE CRATER. Playing offensive center and excelling as a defensive linebacker, he won his second varsity football letter. George also won the best defensive back trophy.

DICK OGDEN, although handicapped by his lack of size, provided plenty of competition as a tackle besides holding the ball for that ever-important point after touchdown. This was Dick's first year on the squad.

Jack Conn

George Crater

Dick Ogden

Bob Regenhardt

Jim Price

Jack Lawrence

Playing offensive guard and defensive end, BOB REGENHARDT was one of the most valuable members of the squad. Without his fine blocking and defensive prowess this year's squad would not have been the success that it was. Bob won his first varsity football letter this year.

JAMES PRICE, speedy halfback, also saw action at a tackle position. Jim's aggressive play and fine spirit contributed much to the success of this year's squad. He won his first varsity football letter this year.

In his first season of football and thereby handicapped by lack of experience, JACK LAWRENCE soon proved to be a valuable member of the squad. Jack's display of fine competition at a guard position was a contributing factor in the success attained by the 1950 Generals.

MARTIN FRITZ proved to be a tower of strength on the Generals' defensive line. He also saw action as an offensive guard and center. Martin won his second varsity football letter.

A valuable member of the Generals' defensive line was BILL MARTIN. Bill's aggressive style of play enabled him more than a few times to stop his opponents for little or no gain. Bill won his first varsity letter this year.

Fast charging and hard hitting best describes our defensive lineman DICK GWIN. Besides winning his first varsity football letter, Dick was awarded the best defensive lineman trophy.

Bill Martin

Dick Gwin

Harold Premier

Jim McClarran

Roger Massaro

HAROLD BIRD PREMIER, playing his second year, has developed into one of the best blockers in the state. He had won his first varsity letter and also won the best offensive lineman trophy.

JAMES MCCLARRAN, an outstanding player the first year in his high school career, provided stiff competition at a guard position, thus aiding in making the Generals a better team.

ROGER MASSARO, converted fullback, turned in an excellent season at a guard position. His speed and quick, darting blocking paved the way for many General scores. Roger also played defensive linebacker and won his first varsity football letter.

Varsity Football

The 1956 season of the Wooster High Generals under the expert tutelage of Head Coach Gene Crenshaw and his assistants, Coaches Ken Zimmet and John Alukas, achieved another successful season. Getting off to a slow start, the Generals soon hit their stride and completed their ten-game schedule with a neat record of six wins, one tie, and three losses.

Traveling to Painesville for their season opener, the Generals permitted the Red Riders to score a last minute last field goal to hold over Wooster out of the game through out the second half but was unable to annex the extra point after a fourth quarter TD and as a result came out on the short end of a 7-6 score.

One week later Wooster battled a heavily favored power Kent South squad to a 0-0 deadlock.

The Generals' first win of the season came at the expense of Kent Roosevelt's Rough Riders by a score of 33-13.

VARSIY FOOTBALL

Wooster's next two games with Dover's Golden Tornadoes and Canton Central Catholic were chalked up in the loss column by scores of 20-13 and 26-6.

Bouncing back after their previous defeats, the Generals began a five game winning streak by pounding out a 49-3 win over a hard fighting Ashland eleven and then went on to a 35-0 victory over Wadsworth one week later.

In a well-played, hard fought battle at Mt. Vernon, the Generals refused to let up and finally pushed over the fourth quarter TD to bring home a 7-0 victory.

At the annual Homecoming game the Generals, scoring on their opening play, went on to blast Orrville 53-0.

One week later the Generals successfully closed their 1950 season by defeating the Mansfield Madison Rams 33-1.

In winning six, tying one, and losing three games, the Generals amassed a total of 198 points to their opponents' 104. Only one of the first five games was accredited to the win column yet were losing three and tying one. The Generals held their opponents to 70 points while scoring 41 themselves. During the last five games the Generals exploded with 127 points while holding the opponents to a mere 25.

RESERVES AND COLONELS

For the second successive season, Wooster High's Reserve football team finished its season unbeaten. The future Generals this year won four straight games. They topped Mansfield Johnny Appleseed 44-13, then won over Dover 6-7, faced Ashland 29-13, snapped Mansfield Madison's 11-0. The 62 point total against Dover is probably the top Reserve football total ever compiled at Wooster. Compared with the eight straight wins of the 1949 team, Wooster Reserve squads have now won 12 straight games. Top Reserve scorer was Neal Withrow, who had 44 points. Larry Snoddy was a close second with 38 markers.

The Junior High football team had much less luck in its seven game season. The Colonels won their first game against Doylestown 12-6, but lost their next six contests. Losses were to Millersburg Reserves 2-0, Wadsworth Juniors 39-0, Massillon Longfellow 59-11, Massillon Jones 56-11, Akron Buchtel Juniors 41-6, and Barberton Al Stars 31-6. Phil Franks was the top Colonel scorer, tallying 24 points.

VARSITY BASKETBALL

Swishing their way to two co-championships and fourteen wins in nineteen games, this year's edition of the Blue and Goldagers completed one of the most successful seasons in the school's history.

Besides winning the Central Buckeye League co-championship, the Generals traveled to Defiance during the Christmas Holidays to participate in the Defiance Invitational Tournament. By defeating Defiance and Napoleon, the Generals emerged as co-champions of the tournament, sharing the honors with Ashland High School.

Adding not a little to the successful season were two defeats handed to New Philadelphia.

Carl Bradford

Cliff Elliott

Eliot Tunison

Using his height to good advantage, 6' 3" forward CARL BRADFORD proved to be a valuable piece on the team. Carl aided the team in scoring throughout the greater part of the season. He ended the season with a total of 111 points to rank second in the vital scoring. Carl won his second letter this year.

One of Wooster High's co-captains was 5' 11" senior forward CLIFF ELLIOTT. Cliff sparkled in rebound play for the Generals as well as playing a fine floor game and capturing fifth place in individual scoring with 111 points. He copped his second basketball letter this season.

Leading the 1950-51 edition of the General cagers in individual scoring was 6' forward and center, ELIOT TUNISON. Eliot ended the season with a total of 171 points for an average of nine points per game. His excellent shooting and rebounding proved to be a valuable factor in the successful season achieved by the team this year. Eliot won his second varsity letter this year.

and Coshocton by the Generals. Sweet revenge was also gained over Orrville, Millersburg, and Rittman. Wooster's only decisive defeat came at the hands of Ashland by a score of 69 to 45.

Teamwork, depth, and a good spirit proved to be the outstanding traits of this year's squad. This is borne out by the fact that six of the ten varsity members of the squad scored over one hundred points apiece.

For the season the Generals scored exactly 1,000 points for an average of 57.8 points per game while their opponents scored a total of 811 for a 42.9 points per game average.

A total of nine varsity letters were awarded this year, six of which were presented to senior members Eliot Tunison, Carl Bradford, Ralph Ely, Dick Ogden, and Co-captains Pete Fleischberger and Cliff Elliott. Returning next year as lettermen will be Bill Kardos, Bill Schreiber, and Dick Schreiner.

Ralph Ely

Pete Hershberger

Dick Ogden

Top notch shot, clever passer, and fine all around floor man. Those adjectives describe RALPH ELY, 5' 9" senior forward. Ely earned a reputation as one of the team's best shots throughout his 1950 play. In winning his first varsity letter, Ely totaled 95 points, counting 60 on his own in the latter half of the season.

Co-Captain PETE HERSHBERGER besides directing the team during many of the games played, excelled in offensive and defensive play from his guard position. Voted by his team mates as the squad's most valuable player, Pete netted 139 points to rank fourth in individual scoring. He won his third varsity letter this year.

Being the smallest man on the team did not stop DICK OGDEN. Standing at 5' 7" tall, Dick worked hard all season, gaining a starting assignment in the Loudonville game. Dick promptly racked up 17 points to pace his team for the evening. Throughout the remainder of the season Dick was a regular starter at a guard position. He won his first letter this year.

RESERVES

Composed entirely of freshmen and sophomores and coached by John Maskas, this year's Reserve Squad breezed through to eight straight wins to capture their second straight CBI crown. The team's complete season's play with an excellent record of thirteen wins and three losses. These three losses came at the hands of Ashland, Coshocton, and Mansfield Madison.

Setting the pace for the Reserves in individual scoring were Bill Fisher who netted 203 points, Chuck Miller with 138, and Bob Starr who caged 108.

COLONELS

By a mere three points Coach Al Johnson's Junior High Colonels were deprived of another excellent season. Getting off to a late start the Colonels played a total of nine games and completed their season with five wins and four losses. Three of their four losses were by one point. Two of these three one-point losses were suffered in tournament games.

Leading the Colonels in individual scoring was Leo Hanson, an eighth grader. Leo netted a total of 89 points.

TANKERS

Competing against the best teams in the state the 1950-51 Tankers ended the season with two wins and six defeats. Canton McKinley, where the Generals met in a season meet, won this year's state swimming championship.

Leading scorer for Coach Paul Dodge's swimmers was Dick Gwin. Besides being unbeaten in individual meets in the 50 and 100 yard free style events, Dick placed third in the 100 and first in the 50 at the district meet. He then went on to place fifth at the state meet.

Junior Friedman and Martin Fritz ranked next in scoring.

Winning entries this year were Neal Withrow, Dick Gwin, Sonny Carmichael, Martin Fritz, Junior Friedman and Milt Hoffman. Withrow and Carmichael will return next year to form the nucleus of the 1951-52 team.

GOLF

Opening an eight match schedule on the Wooster Country Club course, Coach Ken Zuercher's golfers will strive to achieve another successful season.

Four home and four away series are definitely set with another series against Canton Lehman to be scheduled later in the season.

As the Annual goes to press before the golf season is completed, an actual won lost record cannot be given. However, in view of past seasons records, the coaches are confident that Wooster High can be fairly certain of another good year.

Forming the nucleus of this year's squad will be returning lettermen Ralph Ely and Dick Zerrer, seniors, and sophomore Cliff Bible.

Returning as lettermen this year are Jim Landes, Ronnie McQuigg, Carl Daugherty, and Sonny Carmichael, who holds the school record in individual scoring

Since the Annual was printed before the track season was completed, a definite statement of the seasons success cannot be made. However from the showing of this years General under men in their initial meet another successful season can well be expected

RIFLE CLUB

The Rifle Club was chartered in 1911 by the Wooster American Legion in order that boys between the ages of fourteen and eighteen might be given experience in the safe and correct use of firearms.

The club holds its meetings every Thursday evening in the old gym where the members shoot an average of ten rounds of ammunition a night. All materials such as rifles and ammunition are generously furnished by the American Legion.

The Rifle Club has the following ranks which may be attained: pro marksman, marksman, marksman first class, sharpshooter, expert, and distinguished rifleman.

The club is under the instruction of A. C. Sigler and Paul McDavitt.

SENIOR GAA SPORTS BOARD

The governing board of Senior GAA, under the sponsorship of Miss Anna Syrios, consists of the officers and sports managers. The president, Ann Albright, did a very capable job of carrying out her duties as general manager of all activities.

Ann along with the other three officers was elected by all GAA members from grades 9-12 at the end of last year. The managers were then appointed by Miss Syrios from those that signed up.

This group of fourteen girls tried to promote interest in GAA. The manager's job was to take charge of scheduling games and taking attendance at her respective sports.

SENIOR GAA MEMBERS

When the final results for Senior GAA elections were in, we learned that our new president was Ann Albright.

Under Ann's capable leadership a constitution was compiled. It set up definite rules for practices, points, and membership—something we have never had before.

As one of the projects to make money, the GAA sponsored a dance after every home football game. They also made and sold pop-corn at home games to increase their funds.

There were ten major sports for these girls to participate in. Many thanks are to be given to Miss Syros and Mrs. Slater, the advisers, and to the individual sports managers who made them possible.

GIRLS' "W" ASSOCIATION

The girls' "W" association is an honorary group of Senior GAA girls. To get a coveted "W" a girl must have earned at least 800 points, which she receives by participating in various sports.

This year the girls exchanged playdays with Orrville. When the Orrville girls came to Wooster, we entertained them with a basketball game, swimming, a dinner, and the Varsity's Wooster-Orrville game. It proved a gala evening for all.

The high school students probably wondered about the odd-looking girls dancing and singing in the halls one day in March. They were the initiates of the "W" association. Their initiation and the Harvard-Yale dance were the high points of the "W" girls' social life this year.

LEADERS CLUB

Leaders Club, composed of senior GAA girls, gives its members valuable experience in directing activities of the high school girls. The members not only help Miss Syrios and Mrs. Shaler in gym classes but also serve as timekeepers, scorekeepers, referees, and umpires in after-school sports activities.

This organization offers the members understanding of methods of teaching physical education. It is in this club that many girls decide to become teachers of physical education.

"W" points are awarded to these girls for their work.

ALL-STAR SOCCER

Strained muscles and black and blue marks informed us that the 1950 GAA soccer season had begun.

The first GAA sport of the year, soccer started September 20. The manager Pat Weir had many problems trying to keep the schedule she was set up. At the time, it seemed to be against us, for all we had was cold, rainy weather.

Fifty-three girls managed to struggle through the season and were eligible for All-Star. Marlene Mushock and Carol Landers were chosen to captain the All-Star teams, Army and Navy.

The teams were very evenly divided and through both halves, the final whistle sounded on a 0-0 tie October 23.

ALL-STAR HOCKEY

As October 25 rolled around there were sixty three Senior GAA girls taking the long trudge down to the hockey field. It was one of the best hockey seasons, even though the weather was against us.

There were no class champions this year since there were combined teams of juniors and seniors.

All-Star teams were announced by the manager, Marilou Ackerman. Jan Pritchard and Sally Wells were selected to be managers. Under their clever planning the combined banquet for both hockey and soccer All-Star teams was enjoyed.

Mary Anne Hudson and Ann Heise decided to name their teams the Imps and Peanuts in honor of their advisers' social clubs.

Then the "Big Snow" descended on Wooster and changed all plans. This All-Star game was never played.

ALL-STAR BOWLING

Strikes were in the minds of the seventy GAA girls who tried out for bowling.

As manager, Nancy Crow divided the girls into four teams, with two teams bowling every Tuesday. To be eligible for All-star the girls had to be at all practices, and to receive their points for trying out they had to be at two out the three practices.

The two girls with the highest averages are picked to be All-star captains. This year Shirley Coblenz captained Vassar and Bobbie Ackerman led Smith.

On January 22, the All-star meet was held. After the pins stopped falling we discovered that Vassar was the victor over Smith by 226 points.

ALL-STAR BASKETBALL

December 12 was a big event for Senior GAA, for this day started basketball, the most favored sport of the year. There were one hundred and two girls who tried out; of these, ninety-two were eligible for All star. The girls, who were divided into ten class teams, played every Tuesday noon and Wednesday after school.

With so many girls eligible for All-star, it was hard picking only eighteen girls for this honor. Nancy Crow and Ann Albright were chosen to captain Harvard and Yale.

A banquet at Keeney's cafeteria was held the Wednesday before the game. The planning for this was done by the All-star managers, Linda Brubaker and Janice Gartshore. After the banquet everyone returned to the high school for a practice.

The big day for the game arrived on Friday, March 9. The referees from the College of Wooster blew their whistles to start the game at 7:30. Boy cheerleaders led the yells for an exciting game. Yale proved to be the better team and won by the score of 12-4. Ann Albright, captain of Yale, led the scoring with six points.

To climax this eventful day, "W" initiation and a Yale Harvard dance followed the All star game in the auditorium.

LIFESAVING

Our future lifesavers met every Monday under the supervision of Mrs. Shaler.

Rigid water drills, oral and written tests are part of this useful course.

Up until this year G.A.A. points were not given to girls who went out for lifesaving, but this year they will receive points, the same as for any other sport.

As this book went to press, the final examinations had not been given.

Those out for lifesaving were Connie Arnold, Margie Boling, Junior Friedman, Jean Honeberger, Nancy Orahood, Margie Wright, Pat Winter, Pat Young, Bob Wilson.

JUNIOR GAA SPORTS BOARD

The sports board pictured here is the governing body for the junior section of the Girls Athletic Association. The board is composed of the officers and managers of the various sports.

With the aid of their adviser Mrs. Barbara Shafer, the girls planned a Sadie Hawkins dance, which was held February 10. A "Play Day" was also planned for the spring.

The members of Junior GAA elect the officers; whereas, the managers are chosen by the officers with the assistance of the adviser. They are selected for their interest, skill and leadership in that particular sport.

The officers and managers are:

Anne Shamp	President
Millie Conrad	Vice president
Cynthia Straub	Secretary-treasurer
Edna Dix	Social chairman
Juanita Yoder	Softball manager
Joyce Hider	Soccer
Norma Jean Angel	Intramural swimming
Sue Isch	Basketball
Sally Snyder	Bowling
Lauranna Weirick	Table Tennis
Alicia Crow	Volleyball
Ann Teel	Aquatics

JUNIOR GAA

Here pictured are the girls from the seventh, eighth, and ninth grades who comprise the junior section of the Girls' Athletic Association, under the leadership of Mrs. Barbara Shafel

Fifty points are given to the girls for going out for a sport and thirty points are credited to them if they are selected to play on the All-Star teams. Ten points are given to captains and managers. Additional points are also received for refereeing, timing, and scoring.

Junior GAA gives the experience needed for Senior GAA. The girls also learn sportsmanship and teamwork, aside from the good times and wholesome fun they all have in competing in the various sports.

JUNIOR GAA SOCCER

Soccer, under the management of Joyce Hider, opened our Junior GAA season this year. Twenty-six of the forty-two girls that signed up for soccer made All-Star. The girls for All-Star were selected for their ability, sportsmanship, and attendance.

The All-Star game was held in the last week of October, after which a banquet was given.

Navy was defeated in a closely matched game when Army made a goal in the last quarter of the game. The score was Army 1, Navy 0.

JUNIOR GAA ALL-STAR BOWLING

Unfinished homework, because of aching fingers and sore arms, was a sure sign that Junior GAA bowling had begun.

Thirty girls signed up for bowling under the management of Sally Snyder, and thirty beginning November 24 went bowling every Friday until the All Star game January 5.

The requirements for All-Star were a perfect attendance and an average of eighty or better in bowling.

Smith, captained by Judie Brown, outscored Vassar, captained by Patty Boyles, by only twelve pins.

The members of All-Star bowling were:

JUNIOR GAA ALL-STAR BASKETBALL

Let's go! Let's fight! Let's win! The Harvard and Yale cheerleaders were really in there rooting for the All-star teams. But despite Harvard's frantic cheering they were unable to outscore the Yale team. Yale topped Harvard by eleven points, the score being 27 to 17 with Alicia Crow of Yale leading both teams in points with eight.

Over sixty girls went out for basketball this year, making our season a big success. The girls were all faithful in attending the team games which began in January and lasted till the All-star game March 16.

How and What to tell a COMMUNIST

Don't look for physical differences when you try to spot a Communist. Communists are all kinds of people in all walks of life and of all races.

A Communist is anyone who believes in the Russian system of government, whereby those who govern own everything and control all the activities of all the people.

A Communist is loyal only to Soviet Russia. As a member of the Communist Party he is dedicated for life to the protection of the U.S.S.R. and to the establishment of Communism throughout the world.

A Communist will usually deny that he is a Communist. There are many Communists who are not in reality card-carrying members of the party. But both types of Communists carry on the same work, although the second type cannot let it be known that he is a member. His real value to the party is in indoctrinating those unsuspecting people in key positions with government, schools, unions and churches with Communistic philosophies.

When a Communist goes to work on you tell him that you are on to him and his dirty game.

Tell him, further, that you think it your patriotic duty to make his activities known to others and to the police.

Tell him that you know no tactics are too low for a Communist: lying, cheating, betrayal, ruin and even murder. But be sure to tell him, too, that America is on the alert and that his scheme for world domination is doomed to failure.
